OBITUARY

BISHOP HORACE DOUGLAS

Bishop Horace Douglas was born October 10, 1900 in Clarksville, Texas to Mr. George Franklin and Sarah Douglas.

Bishop Horace Douglas was saved November 4, 1921 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, under the leadership of Elder Allen Burgess.

He was united in matrimony to Miss Rita Ann Walley on February 23, 1924.

At an early age he was called to the ministry, laboring in Oklahoma for a short time. He moved to Missouri under the noble leadership of Bishop V. M. Barker which he enjoyed immensely. Bishop Douglas then moved to Phoenix, Arizona, and there worked under Bishop J. W. Taylor.

From Arizona, Bishop Douglas came to Los Angeles, California. Under the efficient Bishop Samuel Crouch, he pastored a church in Los Angeles. He saw the church grow in California from 36 churches to more than 300 churches, from southern end to northern end. From Los Angeles he was sent to Vallejo, California. There his church was blessed with few saints and became able to purchase a corner lot and build living quarters for the pastor. This was done, as a church and many remember, during the economically lean years.

In 1939 Bishop Douglas was appointed to a church in Bakersfield, California as a pastor. He served there for thirteen successful years. Truly God blessed him during that pastorage; he was promoted to District Superintendent of the San Joaquin District, covering the area from Bakersfield, California to Weed, California. The entire area at the time of his appointment had only seven churches. One look at the same area shows how God has blessed it with seven Districts and sixty-seven churches. Bishop Douglas preached out and helped to build twenty-two of those churches.

On January 12, 1953, Bishop Douglas came under the leadership of the Godly Bishop E. B. Stewart and was assigned to Gethsemane Church Of God In Christ at 1115 Buchanan Street, San Francisco, California. Because of redevelopment in this area Bishop Douglas led us to our present location, 560 Haight Street in the City of San Francisco.

He departed this life on February 11, 1964 at his home, 654 Los Palmos Drive, San Francisco, California.

He leaves to mourn his passing three sisters, Mrs. Osie Ford, Mrs. Beatrice Baker of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Sadie Jackson of Tulsa, Oklahoma; one brother, Mr. A. D. Douglas of Los Angeles, California, and a host of friends.
